

THE CHICAGO HIT SQUAD PRESENT.....

A Tribute to.....

THE BLUES BROTHERS

Featuring Terry Nash

From ITV's "STARS IN THEIR EYES"

With vocal range, power and versatility, combined with a haunting on stage resemblance to the one and only John Bellushi, Terry has been singing since his Teen's, from Pop to Rock from Ballads to Showstoppers and Light Opera. In 1993 he realised that combining voice and appearance was becoming irresistible as audiences demanded songs from the film 'THE BLUES BROTHERS. So with a stunning appearance on ITV's STARS IN THEIR EYES, with 106 miles to Chicago Rock London, when it was dark and he was wearing sunglasses, Terry donned the black suit and Trilby, and Jake Blues 2 was born. He searched high and low 'On a mission from God' for the 'Lost Brother' Elwood, who he found in John Iles. John an entertainer in his own right had recently returned from a tour of Europe, Scandinavia and the sub-continent. Between them they formed the CHICAGO HIT SQUAD - a truly energetic and vocally authentic tribute to the Blues Brothers. Terry has since formed a formidable partnership with Bournemouth bluesman, Hugh Budden who now also plays Elwood playing live harmonica on stage. Hugh has formerly played with The Producers, voted Best Blues Band in the UK and currently works with several live blues acts in the south.

To compliment the duo the option of a live band was essential. The best of South Coast professional musicians were selected. Members include; Band Leader Martin Kitcher (Bass Guitar) who has played in theatre and music venues in Blues Brothers productions across the world, Paul Gill (Drums), ex Mott the Hoople, Dexy's Midnight Runners and Alvin Stardust Tours, Tim Wedlake (Lead Guitar), who has played all over Europe with Jimmy Page and Robert Plant and supported Oasis on tour. Bobby Eastwood (Keyboards), who has toured with Robbie Williams and The Verve and also played in West End Theatre productions of The Blues Brothers and The Rocky Horror Show.....
